INAUGURATIONEVENTS.COM HELPS SPARK THE INAUGURATION SPIRIT

Event Website Helps Individuals Find and Participate in Inauguration Festivities

Washington D.C., December 5, 2012 – InaugurationEvents.com officially launches its comprehensive website to match attendees with the various Inauguration 2012 events taking place in the Metro D.C. area. Individuals, couples and groups interested in being swept up in the spirit of the 57th Annual Presidential Inauguration events can match the type of event they want to attend with the date and time they are visiting the Washington D.C. area. The site offers the latest up-to-date information on the events unfolding in the weeks leading up to the inauguration and the events celebrating the inauguration.

Some of the top restaurants, nightclubs and historical venues in Washington D.C. are hosting unofficial events in the city as part of the inauguration celebration. InaugurationEvents.com is the premier source for finding the galas, entertainment options and nightlife events taking place in Washington D.C. as part of the festivities. While the average citizen is not able to attend the official soirees surrounding this historic event, creating their own piece of history is a viable option for anyone visiting or living in the Metro D.C. area by locating and choosing one of the unofficial events listed on the site.

Restaurants, nightclubs, lounges and other venues hosting events in celebration of the inauguration also have an opportunity to list and promote their events on InaugurationEvents.com. Part of the website launch includes an opportunity for these venues to expose their events to thousands of people looking to attend inauguration events throughout the district. Access to this dynamic community is the perfect fit for those looking to match their inauguration celebrations with attendees looking to be a part of history in the making.

“The 57th Presidential Inauguration is a huge piece of American history. The average person isn’t able to attend any of the official events surrounding this highly festive and important event. This is why I created InaugurationEvents.com. The site offers an opportunity for residents or visitors to the D.C. area to attend festivities to celebrate the inauguration their own way. This dynamic site is about bringing together individuals looking to celebrate the inauguration with the venues that are hosting the events,” says Andrea Hardison, creator of InaugurationEvents.com.

Andrea Hardison is no stranger to connecting events and attendees. She is also the creator of DC PARTY LIFE, where residents and visitors in the D.C. area can keep up with the latest and hottest events unfolding throughout the district.

About InaugurationEvents.com

InaugurationEvents.com provides complete access to the inaugural galas, unofficial events and entertainment options taking place in Washington D.C. as part of the celebration of the 57th Presidential Inauguration taking place on Monday, January 21, 2013.

InaugurationEvents.com started in 2008 in celebration of the 56th Presidential Inauguration.
